EL DORADO CO. SUPERIOR COURT
BY Derinda Lambie
(DEPUTY CLERK)

STANDING ORDER RE:
JUVENILE TELEPHONE APPEARANCE
(California Rules of Court, rule 5.531)

A child may appear by telephone with 24 hours notice by counsel for the child to all parties and the Court.

Non-minor dependents may appear by telephone with 24 hours notice by counsel for the non-minor dependent to all parties and the Court.

If a parent is unable to appear in court for a previously scheduled hearing, counsel may submit a request to the Court on the J-1 local form available on the Court's website at <http://www.eldoradocourt.org/forms/localforms.html> for the parent to appear by telephone with 48 hours notice to all counsel and the Court and the completion of local form J-2. The Court will endeavor to approve or reject counsel's request in advance of the hearing. In the event of an emergency, counsel may request telephone appearance in person at the court hearing.

Domestic telephone appearances will be initiated by the courtroom clerk on the courtroom's speaker phone. International telephone appearances must be arranged for and initiated by counsel.
